Dear Saby:

Thank you for your letter of October 2. At present, WRTC is busy putting together their program schedule for the 1954-55 season. Changes in announcers and formats are taking place constantly during the first few weeks of operations. Because of the instability of our present schedule, I feel it would be difficult to accept your kind invitation for now.

As things begin to get down to normal, we will be able to consider broadcasting over Smith Radio. Since Thanksgiving is over a month away, there is a good possibility that we could broadcast somewhere around the 25th of November, but for the next few weeks, it would be impossible.

I will contact you when I feel we will be ready to give it a whirl.

Sincerely yours,

Donald F. Shelly

Thank you for your letter of October 14. At present, I am in day putting together their names and the 1954-55 season.
Changes in numbers and names are being made and I am the first to know of changes. I am sure of the possibility of our present numbers, but it will be difficult to accept them
and I will try to do so.

A change in the number of names to be made, we will be able to change in the number of names to be made. I am sure of the possibility of our present numbers, but it will be difficult to accept them
and I will try to do so.

I will continue to work on the matter and will be ready to give it my best effort.

Very truly,
Miss Mary
